TRAVEL HEALTH ADVISORY

All players are advised to check example websites below (or a travel website in your home country) and follow all health related recommendations and requirements for travelling to South

<https://travelhealthpro.org.uk/countries>

<https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list>

VISA

PLEASE NOTE: Border restrictions may apply.

Before entering this event, all players should check with their local Consular Service of South Africa to confirm if they will be permitted to enter the country and if any special authorizations are required.

All foreign citizens wishing to travel to South Africa will need a visa, except citizens from countries who are exempt.

Visas are not issued at South African ports of entry, and airline officials must insist on visas before allowing passengers to board. If you arrive without a visa, immigration officials are obliged to put you onto a flight back to your home country.

If you are coming for a specific tournament, event, or training camp, you will likely need a Visitor's Visa for Sport Purposes.

Visitors to South Africa must have a valid passport with at least two blank pages and, depending on nationality, a visa for tourism/business (valid up to 90 days). Visa-exempt nationals do not need a visa, but all must possess a return ticket and, if required, a yellow fever certificate.

Key Requirement: An original Letter of Invitation from the South African sports host, organization, or event organizer. Can be retrieved from Tennis UNO after credential request.

If you are exempt from requiring a visa, you must still present your Letter of Invitation and supporting documentation at the port of entry to prove you are here for sports.

Documentation: You must submit a completed DHA-84 form, proof of sufficient funds for your stay, and a return ticket.

Yellow fever certificate is required only if the applicant is passing through yellow fever belt area before entering South Africa.

Personal Coaching: Professional sports people, often bring personal coaches who enter on standard sports visas rather than work permits, provided they are not employed by a local entity.

Recommendation: Contact the South African embassy or VFS Global to confirm your visa requirements.
